Ron, I owe so much to you for what you have taught me over the past several years. Every time I cash a big check for short-sales, subject-to properties or any other aspect of the business, I think of you. You have truly mentored me to another level. I currently own some sixty properties, but can't wait to get home and liquidate them so I can concentrate on the commercial real estate industry. It was a fabulous boot camp. I always enjoy Ron's candor. Bob McConnell - Birmingham, AL

Ron LeGrand is a master of instruction. He can effortlessly break down Real Estate subject matter into bites so small a child could digest them. This was my first LeGrand Boot Camp taught by the master himself I am completely confident after attending this Boot Camp that I am destined to be a deka-millionaire $100,000,000 in the next 5 to 10 years, maybe even a billionaire. My life is changed forever and there's no going back. The mysteries of commercial investing are revealed and success, massive success is only a matter of time. Thank you Ron, for changing my life and changing the course of my family's wealth for generations to come. Dan Engfer - Arlington, VA

Having this excellent opportunity to learn commercial "the Ron way" and even better, being able to actually do a deal and learn hands on by partnering with Ron, is an incredible thing for any investor trying to make the jump from residential to commercial. Thank you Ron & staff for once again giving us more than we expected. This event is a bargain, and a must for anyone that is investing in commercial real estate now or looking to get started in commercial. I feel like I am way up on anyone that had not yet learned this material. Chuck Maahs - Syracuse, NY

Ron has simplified the way to make millions in commercial property, just as he has done with houses-with as many secrets and little-known techniques to use! Always the champion of "the little guy," Ron has again de-bunked the traditions and myths that limit people who don't have a ton of capital, experience, and connections. And, he has probably saved those of us who would have ventured into commercial blindly on our own from a lifetime of massive problems, headaches, and abysmally low returns. Thank you, Ron, for showing us how to reach the multi-millionaire status. Alan Brymer - Provo, CT
